REPORT OF DIRECTOR AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The Union County Career and Technology Center continues to serve our students and community in 2007-08. Our building construction teacher earned his certification through NCCER and our Auto Collision teacher has begun and continues to earn his state certification. We are working in automotive technology to become NATEF certified and our automotive students are involved in a project to build and race a drag racing car. They have been recognized in a national magazine for their collaboration in this project with local businesses and supporters.

The National Technical Honor Society has been active and provided out of school learning experiences for our students. The FBLA organization had students excel at both district and state level competitions again this year. Our business education department has enhanced their program in collaboration with USC-Union by adding USC Computer Science 101 and 102 at our school. We continue to enjoy and benefit from our close association with Spartanburg Community College. They assist us in offering dual credit courses and career and technical opportunities at our school. An administrator has been assigned to function as the director of career and technology at Union County High School. He will work with our School-to-Work coordinator as we move toward increasing our complete programs in career and technology and job placement opportunities in Union County.

Our community, local governments, and district support the Career and Technology Center and its mission. We have found a counselor who is seeking training to further assist our students and teachers in Career and Technology. We look forward to continuing to develop and enhance our offerings through these programs.
